

COMMON GROUND CLINIC

Sunday, May 4, 2025 Walnut Grove Park

8:30 A.M. - 3:00 P.M. 1950 Sycamore Drive, San Marcos

Dressage for any rider

8:30 - 10:30 A.M.

Saddle fitter, and FEI trainer and rider Angie Taylor has won multiple local and regional dressage championships and is a former working student of Olympian Steffen Peters. Leveraging her knowledge of the biomechanics of riding, Angie will share how to use your body and aids to be effective in a subtle and harmonious way with your horse.

Hey, does your horse understand what you're saying?

10:30 A.M - 12:30 P.M.

Lou Roper has been in the San Diego area for over five decades and in the beautiful Twin Oaks Valley for over three of those. Using techniques from the modern-day horse show trail horse class, Lou will help you increase your riding skills for pleasure or show.

Hunter/Jumper clinic

1:00 - 3:00 P.M.

Join Grand Prix and World Cup show jumper Sarah Baldwin as she leans on her extensive career as an equestrian and clinician to help riders at all levels face jumps with skill and confidence.

$65 per session

$10 stall reservation (optional)

$40 audit (bleacher seating)

Bring your own horse for this fun and educational day at Walnut Grove Park with local professionals.

Lunch and TOVEA membership included for participants.
