

HORSE HERITAGE CONSERVANCY invites you to our 501(c)(3)

Common Ground Clinic

Celebrating the connection between horses and humans in our community.

Sunday, May 19, 2024 Walnut Grove Park

10:00 A.M. - 3:00 P.M. 1950 Sycamore Drive, San Marcos

Hunter/Jumper Clinic

10:00 - 11:30 A.M.

Join Lindsay Pettingell of White Wolf Equestrian in a clinic focusing on adjustability, strength, and balance—all of which are the foundation of any successful jumping partner. Lindsay will bring special focus to simple exercises riders can continue to practice on their own for continued success.

Equine First Aid

12:30 - 1:30 P.M. - free admission

Demonstrating on a live horse, local equine veterinarians Dr. Matt Leshaw and Dr. Kim Hauck discuss "when to call the vet" and first aid basics every horse owner should know.

Back to Basics - unmounted clinic

1:45 - 3:15 P.M.

Join experienced equestrians Sarah Pinney and Matt French for a dynamic, activity-focused role-play clinic centered on the foundational skills of horse communication and cueing. Emphasis on effectively using body language and touch to convey "Yes" and "No." Designed for both beginners and advanced riders.

$65 registration for one clinic

$95 for the full day or $30 to audit full day

Bring your own horse for this fun and educational day at Walnut Grove Park with local professionals.

Lunch and TOVEA membership included for participants.
